

Symposium Description

The Spanish Society of Medicinal Chemistry (SEQT) has the pleasure to invite you to join the IV SEQT YOUNG RESEARCHERS SYMPOSIUM 2017, which will be held in Barcelona the 19th of May of 2017. This fourth edition is being organized by a group of young researchers from the Medicinal Chemistry Institute (CSIC) and the University of Barcelona. As former editions, this symposium aims to bring together Master, PhD students and Post-doc fellows giving them the opportunity to present and discuss about their research in a friendly atmosphere.

Although this initiative is focused on Medicinal Chemistry the organization would like to invite young scientists working on related disciplines, such as: Pharmacology, Organic Synthesis, Molecular Biology, Computational Chemistry, Chemical Biology, Natural Products, Biotechnology, Biochemistry, or Crystallography.
