

VII SEQT Summer School

MEDICINAL CHEMISTRY AND CHEMICAL BIOLOGY IN DRUG DISCOVERY: THE PHARMA PERSPECTIVE

2022 July, 19-21, Barcelona Science Park.

The Seventh SEQT Summer School is organized by the Spanish Society of Medicinal Chemistry (SEQT) and Enantia with the aim of approaching the pharma industry to young researchers, both graduate students and post-doctoral associates working in the chemistry and health sciences related fields. The School will be held in Barcelona Science Park. During three days, the participants will have the opportunity to learn about the latest research trends in pharmaceutical drug discovery and development.

Workshop topics and speakers

Chemical Biology: PROTACs
Best Practices in Medicinal Chemistry
Bioimaging
New Technologies in Organic Chemistry
Scale-up
ADME-T properties
Entrepreneurship

Speaker to be confirmed
Ingo Hartung (Merck)
Yves Auberson (Novartis)
Alejandro Diéguez (Janssen)
Speakers from FAES Farma and Enantia
Mónica Córdoba and Jordi Bach (Almirall)
Meritxell Teixidó (Gate2Brain)

Accommodation will be provided at a hotel in Barcelona wherein the students will have the exclusive opportunity to share their scientific work and experiences with the panel of industry experts. In order to foster these discussions, all students will be required to participate in flash presentations (two-minute/1-slide presentation of poster highlights) and poster sessions. Among them, the panel of industry experts will select 5 students for a short oral communication during the final day of the school. Best oral communications would also be eligible to represent the SEQT as SEQT young researcher delegate at EFMC-Young Medicinal Chemists' Symposium (EFMC-YSMC 2022)

A tour around Barcelona Science Park facilities is also planned.

In order to facilitate the interaction with the experts, the number of attendees is limited, so early registration is highly encouraged. Don't miss out on this opportunity!
